

Janis Smith Is Bride Of W. L. Hamilton

Miss Janis Smith became the bride of William L. Hamilton, 8515 Sweetwater, in a Saturday evening ceremony at Willow Meadows Baptist Church in Houston.

Mrs. Hamilton, a student of Baylor University, is the daughter of Mrs. Ann Smith of Houston and Joe E. Smith of Woodville. Parents of the bridegroom, a graduate of Texas A&M University, are Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Hamilton of Houston.

Dr. Ralph H. Langley officiated at the ceremony, and the bride was given in marriage by her grandfather, Associate Justice Clyde E. Smith of the Texas Supreme Court.

Miss Sandra Davis of Midland was maid of honor, and Mrs. Jerry D. Spurlock of Houston, matron of honor. Best man was Larry W. Hamilton of Houston, brother of the bridegroom.

Bridesmaids were Misses Janis Kay Sturrock, Woodville; Annette Williams, Houston, and Barbara Hamilton of Houston, sister of the bridegroom. Terry Jo Smith of Houston, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.

Warren Johnson, Gary Bush and Tom Goff, both of College Station, and Gary Pierson and Townes Van Zandt, both of Houston, were groomsmen.

Guests were seated by William O. Smith, Tim Truitt, Ray E. Zellner of Houston and Wesley Roland of College Station.

The bride's gown of peau de soie featured a fitted bodice with scoop neckline and elbow-length sleeves. The controlled skirt was complemented by a chapel-length Watteau train.

A tiara of pearls and crystal beads held her finger-tip veil of illusion, and she carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis.

After a reception at the church Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton left on a wedding trip to New Mexico. They will live in Waxahachie.
