

This month Thornberry and Townes Van Zandt, a well-known singer and composer and popular attraction at the 11th Door, participated in the fifth annual Corpus Christi College Folk Show, which Thornberry organized five years ago. Proceeds from this charity folk sing go to a home for mentally retarded children and Boys' City.