

Held Over At 11th Door

Due to popular demand, folksinger Townes Van Zandt, a talented import from New York, will be held over this weekend at the Eleventh Door, where he will appear on a bill with local folksingers Caddo Parrish and Richard Gammon.

Houston singer Don Sanders is also due to make some guest appearances Thursday and Friday nights, according to Gammon. Sets begin each night at 9 p.m. There is a $1.25 cover charge.

On occasion during the weekend performances, Gammon said, Van Zandt, Parrish and himself may get together and sing as a trio, at which time they will become the "Delta Boys."
