

Fans of Townes Van Zandt, who returns to Austin at Rome Inn tonight through Saturday, can look forward to a chance to obtain three of his fine but obscure previous albums. His current label, Tomato Records, will re-issue "Our Mother the Mountain," "Townes Van Zandt," and "Delta Mama Blues" in January. Also in the works is a new album of all new Townes songs, to be released by Tomato next spring.