Soap's cast now includes Jerry Lanning

By Jon-Michael Reed

NEW YORK — One of soapdoms favorite leading men is back on the screen, this time on Guiding Light. Jerry Lanning has been cast in the role of Cain Harris.

Lanning last portrayed Justin Marshall on the defunct Texas. Prior to that he was despised and reviled by Search for Tomorrow viewers in his role of Nick D'Antoni, in which he kidnapped and physically abused leading lady Sherry Mathis, who played Liza Sentell. What some viewers weren't aware of, however, was the fact that Jerry and Sherry were husband and wife off-screen.

On GL, Lanning's character is becoming mysteriously involved with Reva Lewis's life (played by Kim Zimmer). There's gossip from the studio that Cain and Reva are headed for an edge-of-your-seat, is-he-or-isn't-he-a-killer plot, similar to the film Jagged Edge.

Actress Ellen Dolen has stuck to her guns and will not renew her contract as Maureen Bauer on GL. Her replacement (to be seen late this month) is soap opera newcomer Helen Parker.

Fans have been asking why the scenes involving Philip Spaulding writing a novel are in black and white. It may be that GL is imitating the black and white episodes of nighttime's Moonlighting, which won so much critical acclaim last year. But it should be pointed out that GL has weaved black-and-white fantasy sequences into its plots as far back as five years ago with Nola and Quint Chamberlain.
