Hank Sinatra Presents — An Austin Music Channel Preview, a showcase of locally produced music programs, will air Saturday on ACTV's Cable Channel 33 from 10 a.m. until 2 a.m.

The purpose of the preview is to provide Austin's cable subscribers with a taste of the new access channel being proposed to the cable commission by ACTV. The commission will consider the proposal at its September meeting. The day-long music program begins with an interview with Mayor Lee Cooke conducted by Sinatra in November.

Included in tomorrow's showcase will be two new programs — An Evening with Townes, featuring an hour of concert footage of songwriter Townes Van Zandt performing in Houston; and Hank Remembers Blaze, a tribute to Austin songwriter Blaze Foley, who died early this year.

The showcase also will include selections from Sinatra's two public access series — Hank Sinatra Presents — Music in the Capital City and Hank Sinatra Presents — SAM (Support Austin Music) TV. Performances by Austin acts such as Alvin Crow, Bill Neely, Johnny Gimble, Onnyx and The Nelsons will be featured, all of them filmed at venues in and around Austin.
