

Austin favorite Nanci Griffith's latest album Other Voices Other Rooms pays tribute to the musicians who inspired her — folks like Woody Guthrie, Janis Ian, Carolyn Hester and Townes Van Zandt. Griffith comes to the Paramount Theatre at 8 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday. Also appearing are Guy Clark, supporting his latest Boats to Build, and Iris Dement, who has received acclaim for her Rounder Records debut Infamous Angel. Call 472-5411. . . . Southwest Texas playwright-in-residence Charles Pascoe penned Candlestein, the story of a raccoon whose hair turned white after he witnessed his father's death. Years later, Candlestein brings to trial for crimes against animalkind the owner of the dog who killed his father. Candlestein can be seen in the Main Theatre of Southwest Texas State University's speech and drama department in San Marcos. Call (512) 245-2204.