

Sound choices

OUTLAWS IN NORWOOD: Two of the crispier, crustier renegades of the folk-country movement are at the Norwood Theatre tomorrow. Guy Clark and Townes Van Zandt make up a dream bill for lovers of progressive Texas singer-songwriters. Both have paid serious dues in the self-abuse department, but both have lived to tell the tale and continue to sing songs with a poetic cowboy's sensibility. If Nanci Griffith were in town, she'd be there in a flash, because like many contemporary songwriters she'd tell you of the impact that Clark and Van Zandt have had on their acoustic peers. Tomorrow's show is at 8 p.m. If you don't know where Norwood is, tonight's an excuse to find out. Call 551-9955.

STEVE MORSE