Stephan Foster wrote more Gen. dragster Hal White who is than 200 songs.

Van Zandt Held Over At 11th Door

Due to popular demand, Schlegel Theater Van Zandt, talented import from New York, will appear on a bill with local folk singers Caddo Parrish and Richard Gassner.

Houston singer Don Sanders is also due to make some guest appearances Thursday and Friday nights, according to Gassner. Sets begin each night at 8 p.m. There is a $1.25 cover charge.

On occasion during the weekend performance, Gassner said, Van Zandt, Parrish and Sanders may get together and sing as a trio, at which time they will become the "Delta Boys."

Scarborough Wins Degree

J. Lee Scarborough, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Scarborough of 207 Windsor Road, has received his bachelor of arts degree from Dartmouth College in New Hampshire.

Scarborough, an architecture major, was on the sailing team in the Foreign Study program and on the Atlantic Council. He also worked with WDCR, college radio station, and was a member of The Epitome Phi Fraternity.
