What Somerset has that Pittsburgh needs.
A great convention center, where the staff is actually glad to see you and your fellow members, sking when the snow flies and golf when the sun is in a hole right with a great show every night, a restaurant where you can dine and enjoy on common prices. And a whole lot more. Because Somerset has the General Renaissance. And that's more than Pittsburgh can say.

Colleges Slate Concerts, Seek Players

St. Vincent College's 1977-78 concert series begins Wednesday with baritone Marc Truere.
Programs for the remainder of the year are planned: Joseph Braxler, Oct. 24, the Herald Brass Quintet, Nov. 18, and violinist Philip Sagar, Dec. 1.
All programs will be at 8:00 p.m. in the Science Center Auditorium.
Community College of Allegheny County's three College-Community ensembles are seeking new members.
The groups are the string orchestra conducted by Bernard Nevechick, which rehearses from 7:30 to 10 p.m. Tuesday; the chorus conducted by Ernest DeCarlo, same time and day for rehearsal, and the concert band con-
