

Manchester adds concerts

The Black Sheep Repertory Theater in Manchester has added two more shows to its fall concert schedule.

Folksinger Townes Van Zandt has been added for Oct. 16 and 17 and the folk group The Dillards has been added for Nov. 13 and 14.

The concerts are at 104 E. Main Street in Manchester, sandwiching around repertory theater presentations of shows like "The Subject Was Roses" and "Last of the Red Hot Lovers." Ticket information is available from 1-313-428-9280 or 9287.

Folk-rock singer Josh White Jr.

opened the concert schedule this week. The remainder of the schedule follows:

Oct. 9, 10 — Folksinger Jim Post, 8 p.m., $5.

Oct. 16, 17 — Van Zandt, 8 p.m., $5.

Oct. 19-22 — Second City satirical troupe. Times and prices vary.

Oct. 23, 24 — Veteran blues singer Muddy Waters, 7 and 9:30 p.m., $7.

Oct. 29, 31 — Folk duo Reilly and Maloney, with Michigan folksinger Jonathon Round, 8 p.m., $5.

Nov. 13, 14 — Dillards, 7 and 9:30, $6.