Larry Mahan plans Saturday birthday bash

"Less is more" and "Too much ain't enough" are phrases that describe last weekend for me. Friday I went to Fort Worth to attend an evening with Texas songwriters...

There earlier in the afternoon. "I attended my first rodeo at Will Rogers when I was about two. Look, I've made it 100 yards in 46 years. The Scott Theatre is in the same complex with the rodeo arena.

and the rhythm that I find. "Some of my favorite Van Zandt lines. Clark came out with his son Travis, on bass, and songwriter Verlin Thompson on guitar. This trio did the writing of Guy Clark more than justice. "Less is more," Guy says. "Understand." "Leave space for the listener. Leave some holes." He did. Travis was intense of an acoustic bass, leaving space. And Verlin carried some leads, again leaving space.

Scenic Look at Boerne Stage Road. Jerry Jeff Walker and Tony Joe White will provide great music, and the event serves as a benefit for the Brighter Days Home Refuge, Inc. an organization that takes care of mistreated and unwanted horses.

Emergency Funds On Way to County Needy residents could benefit from federal allocation Congress has appropriated $129 Million dollars to fund the Federal Emergency Food & Shelter Program throughout the United States and of this amount $11,877 will be made available to Kerr County. This money can be used by agencies within our area who are qualified in the field of providing social services to the residents of Kerr County. Once agencies make appropriate responses in the form of an application requesting a portion of the funds the Local Board will meet to determine allocations. Local Board comprised of City and County Officials along with those representing the American Red Cross, Catholic Charity, Council of Jewish Federations, the Salvation Army, and the United Way. Deadline for submitting request to the Local Board is Monday, November 23, 1992 before 10:00 a.m. We re-entertain, a formal application which must be made and submitted to The Salvation Army at 855 Hayes Street, before 10:00 a.m. Must include determination of the Agency of what exactly would be done with the funds. For further information please contact Major Francis Gary at 257-3620.
