

Good five-cent concert coming to Oneonta State

WONY, Oneonta State's campus radio station, has combined with a New York record outfit to produce what promoters call a real rarity: the five cent concert.

Admission to a concert Wednesday night at 9 in the O-State field house will be just a nickel and the audience will hear The Mandrake Memorial and the Townes Van Zandt. They'll appear here through special arrangement with Poppy Records out of New York City.

George Kaywood, business manager of WONY, said this week "what this country needs is a good five-cent concert, and WONY is bringing that to Oneonta."

The Mandrake Memorial has performed in the eastern United States where they have received rave notices. Record World described the group in its review of their Carnegie Hall concert as "Poppy's incredible psychedelic rock trio, which remains one of the most under-rated American groups."

Townes Van Zandt is a slim poet-folksinger from Texas who composes tuningly brilliant ballads about very simple things: goin' out to Denver; his loving a Colorado girl; columbines; love's quicksilver bitterness and "how soft the time flies past your window at night."
