Drama Club Talent Show This Saturday

An evening of family entertainment is scheduled for Saturday night, when the Thomas Jefferson Junior High school Drama club presents its talent show.

Included on the billing for the show, which will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Junior high school cafeteria, is a video solo by Terry Edral, the High Voltage, a school rock group, several dance routines, and even a puppet band.

City Oliver and Diana Smith have been responsible for organizing the show as co-directors, along with the help of faculty advisors, Mrs. Mary Greenberg and Mrs. Joyce Shultz.

Bill Van Noren and Greg Hise have offered their help in the lighting department for the evening performance, and Wendy Ford will act as stage manager.

Mr. and Mrs. William Newsome entertained Sunday at a birthday dinner for Mrs. Victoria Newsome. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Newsome and family, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Babcock and family, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Babcock and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Wilson and Mrs. Clara Babcock.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Knowledge and daughter, Carol, returned home with several from Illinois where they spent several weeks in their new lease.

Mrs. Yvonne Carlson entertained at a luncheon last Thursday. Guests were Mrs. Edna Oswald, Mrs. Muriel Scholten, Mrs. Bernice Duffin, Mrs. Mary Delmonico, Mrs. Joyce Delmonico and Mrs. Corinne Duffin.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Dwyer have returned from a southern trip. While vacationing they attended a play of which they are proud.

Will Exhibit Original Art

An exhibition of original graphics by classical and contemporary artists will be presented by the Thomas Jefferson Junior High school art club at the Thomas Jefferson Junior High school on Saturday evening, April 18, from 7:30 p.m. to 10:00 p.m.

The exhibition includes more than 100 original drawings, illustrations and paintings by such artists as Picasso, Chagall, Dali, Goya, Matisse, Rembrandt, Van Gogh, and many others. An art display will be a collection of outstanding Western and Oriental manuscript pages from the works of the 15th and 16th centuries.

A representative of the Indian Culture, Patricia Martin, will be present at the exhibition to answer any questions the public may have regarding graphic art and painting.

Benefit Game To Be Played At TJ School

The Student Council at the Thomas Jefferson Junior High school has made plans to sponsor an all-star basketball benefit game with proceeds being donated to Opportunity Delimiters, Inc.

Two games, each grade boys vs. men's faculty and sixth grade girls vs. women's faculty, will be played Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the school.

Student Council members will run the concession stand with profit from it being donated to Opportunity Delimiters, Inc.

Members of the council appointed to serve on the ticket committee are Randy Baker, Steve Carter, Loris Hines, Sue Miller and Mary Ellen Fritch.

The Student Council will plan other projects to aid Opportunity Delimiters this spring. The students are planning to volunteer their services at the shopping.
