

Radio Briefs

---

(Consult "Radio Week" in TV Channels Magazine for complete listing of area AM and FM stations and additional programming information.)

SATURDAY

BICENTENNIAL SPECIALS with Charles Kuralt will be run hourly on the half hour throughout this weekend by CBS and will be heard on WFAA.

ETHICS of the news media will be examined on "The Sandy Crume Show" Saturday at 9 a.m. on WRR. Panelists will include Bob Finklea of D Magazine, Joe Holly of Richmond College and Dave McNeely, a reporter for The Dallas News.

"THE OPERA HOUSE" (1 p.m., WRR-FM) will present Verdi's "Simon Boccanegra" Saturday.

SUNDAY

MARY ANN SMITH, chairwoman of the fund raising committee for the Shakespeare Festival to be held in Fair Park this summer, will be Meg Healy's guest Sunday at 3:25 p.m. on KEZT-FM.

GILBERT AND SULLIVAN'S operetta "The Gondoliers" will be presented on "Sunday Night at the Opera" at 8 p.m. on WRR-FM.

JOSE INGEL GUTIERREZ, founder of the La Raza Unida party, will join Guillermo Galindo and guests Rene Martinez, Almo Galindo and Daniel Soliz on "Nosotros" Sunday at 6 p.m. on WRR.

THE NEW ROLE of insurance in professions, including the controversial malpractice insurance, will be examined by Larry Foster on "Businessline Dallas" Sunday at 9:05 p.m. on WRR.

THE 1974 Kerrville Folk Festival will be highlighted at 10:30 p.m. on KERA-FM. Featured will be performances by Plum Nelly, Townes Van Zandt and Flaco Jimenez.