

Radio Briefs

(Consult "Radio Week" in TV Channels Magazine for a complete listing of AM and FM stations and additional programming information.)

SATURDAY

KERA-FM'S BLOCKBUSTER Saturday is devoted to Texas musicians. There will be 11 hours (from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m.) of music featuring performers from Ernest Tubb to Janis Joplin, from Ornette Coleman to Townes van Zandt.

"THE SANDY CRUME SHOW" will take a look at weight control Saturday at 9 a.m. on WRR. Guesting on the show will be representatives from Weight Watchers and Overeaters Anonymous.

JAMES WILSON, administrator of Presbyterian Village, will discuss retirement homes on "For Mature Adults Only" Saturday at 5:05 p.m. on WRR.

GEORGE CARTER, vice president of Guaranty Bank, and Pettus Norman, former

Dallas Cowboy now in the investments business, will appear on "Minority Business Review" Saturday at 5:30 p.m. on WRR.

DR. MARSHALL McLUHAN, authority on media and communications, will guest on "The Shakespeare Festival of the Air" Saturday at 5:30 p.m. on WRR-FM.

THE BASEBALL GAME between the Houston Astros and the Philadelphia Phillies will be broadcast Saturday at 6:30 p.m. on WRR. A pre-game show will air at 6:20.

SUNDAY

THE SUNDAY OPERA (1:30 p.m., KERA-FM) will present "Anna Bolena" by Donizetti.

LLOYD H. HALDEMAN, general manager of the Dallas Symphony Orchestra, will discuss the orchestra's Summertop concerts with Meg Healy Sunday at 3:25 p.m. on KEZT-FM.