The Hasselblad "USA Today" photo contest is open to professionals and amateurs alike. The theme of the contest is a challenge to all photographers: how do you see the USA today?

Prizes for the one who makes anyone's mouth water. Grand prize includes a one-week paid vacation in Sweden (and, of course, a visit to the Hasselblad factory) plus a 300-CM Hasselblad camera. Second and third prize winners, four in each place, will have to settle for a Hasselblad 11-M or a 300-CM.

THE LAST PICTURE SHOW

After the last credits run by, you can't just roll up the sidewalks and go home! Mike and Charlie's have cooked up a light night cap that beats the salt off of pop-corn chicken or shrimp crepes. Or quiche — not the pun's version of Lorraine, but it's our favorite.

Need something a little more liquid? The bar's open till 1 a.m. Saturday. Week-days, come a little early and see Brice off into the sunset together!
