

Townes Van Zandt

Sunday and Monday, Bunky's: John Lee Hooker's a legend in his own time. If you want to know where a lot of rock groups got a lot of riffs, check him out. With him will be Townes Van Zandt, another should-be legend, one of the best country writers with a city edge of toughness that marks him as a true survivor. Why he isn't at the top is anybody's guess but the late, great and still around Townes is unique.
