

Townes and county

A new Townes Van Zandt record is almost as rare as a bad Townes Van Zandt song. Now the mercurial singer/songwriter, best known for Pancho and Lefty, actually has new vinyl on the shelves, in the form of At My Window. The album reprises several of Van Zandt's lovelier songs, like Snowing On Raton, as well as some new keepers. This gig is something of a release party, preceded by an in-store appearance at Waterloo Records at 4 p.m. The show itself, at the Cactus Cafe, will feature another fine songwriter, Pat Mears. At 9 p.m. Saturday. $5 cover.
