

✓ April 6 — Townes Van Zandt and Fred Koller. Van Zandt and Koller could both be described as off the wall but the walls they bounce off from are different. Van Zandt is well known in folk circles for the songs he has written (such as Willie Nelson's popular Pancho and Lefty ) and the serious subjects he tackles with his lyrics. Koller has a slightly skewed sense of humor and a fine-tuned sense of play that shows up in his in his songwriting, his performances and even his song titles
