

tunes.

Rounding out the series, on August 26, it's the Texas Songwriters Evening, as Guy Clark, Robert Earl Keen, Jr., and Townes Van Zandt, three men responsible for writing some of the most popular country tunes, take their place in the spotlight and perform the songs the way they should be done.

All Red Butte concerts begin at 6:30 p.m. and last until approximately 8 p.m. Admission ranges from $5 to $10, depending on the night, and there is no reserved seating — actually, there is no seating, period, so make sure to break out those picnic blankets. Tickets are available in advance at KUER FM or the Arboretum office. For more information call 581-6625.