

Desolation

And the band has built up a hard-core following, with a great live reputation.

American folk and country singer Townes Van Zandt can be seen next Wednesday at The Masons Arms, in Bury New Road, Whitefield.

He has been described as a "poet of desolation" whose songs are often about the promise of new horizons and the better times to come . . . which