

● Cambridge Folk Festival Diary

TODAY

Billy Bragg, Waterson-Carthy, Eliza Carthy, Larry Garner Band, Sinead Lohan, Rock Salt and Nails, and Loyko. Plus a ceilidh with The Occasionals and Kings of Calicut and a Scottish ceilidh dance workshop with Karin Ingram and Freeland Barbour.

TOMORROW

Oysterband will be among the artists appearing during the afternoon with performances from Alison Krauss and Union Station and the Saw Doctors taking place in the evening.

Others taking part at various times during the day are: The Rankin Family, Altan, Aly Bain and Phil Cunningham, Luka Bloom, Townes Van Zandt, Sherman Robertson, Peter Rowan and Jerry Douglas, Sinead Lohan, Anders Osborne, The John Kirkpatrick Band, Chris Smither, Barry Dransfield, Rock Salt and Nails, Joe Louis Walker and the Bosstalkers, and Loyko. Plus Dar Williams in the Club Tent and a whistle and flute workshop with Brian Finnegan.

COLDHAM'S COMMON: Family entertainment with Maynard Flipflap, John Row and Patchwork Circus and a late night cabaret with The Chipolatas.

SUNDAY

The Penguin Cafe Orchestra heads the list of performers for Sunday evening. Other artists performing during the day are: Ray Davies, Oysterband, The Rankin Family, Altan, Aly Bain and Phil Cunningham, Luka Bloom, Townes Van Zandt, Sherman Robertson, Eileen Ivers, Peter Rowan and Jerry Douglas, Anders Osborne, The John Kirkpatrick Band, Chris Smither, Barry Dransfield, The Holmes Brothers, and Loyko. Plus a children's concert with The Chipolatas Summer Sizzler and an accordion workshop with Phil Cunningham.

COLDHAM'S COMMON: family entertainment with Maynard Flipflap, John Row, and The Chipolatas.

■ Actual appearance times for festival performers are uncertain. More precise details are available in the official festival programme.

Folk hero... Billy Bragg.