

TOWNES VAN ZANDT: Texas troubadour Townes Van Zandt brings his rough-hewn voice and skill at finger picking the guitar to the Rose City for a 7 and 9:30 p.m. concerts at East Avenue Tavern, 727 E. Burnside. Van Zandt, best known for his tune, "Poncho and Lefty," which Willie Nelson and Merle Haggard made a hit, is backing "No Deeper Blue," his first studio release in eight years. Tickets are $10 at East Avenue Tavern, or $12 at the door. Portland's Dan Haley opens.