Where To Go . . .
... What To Do
film fare

Adventure — "The Triple Cross," Christopher Plummer as saboteur, fast-talker, agent for both British and German Intelligence in World War II. Also starring Yul Brynner, Trevor Howard, Gert Fröbe and Hans Schneider, at the Americana.

Doris Day — Freckle-face turns "Mod," modern and moderately sexy in tangle of spies in feminine cosmetics industry. "Caprice," also starring Richard Harris, Ray Walston at the Southwood.

"For a Few Dollars More" — What's that old children's rhyme "same song, second verse, ought to get better, but it gonna get worse." Who knows? But this twosome-cast Western is not children's fare, in this mother's opinion. At the Cinema.

Remake — The old Victor Mature adventure on pirates each, redone with shapey Raquel Welch and John Richardson. "On Million BC II" at the Paramount.

Comedy — "The Buoy Body," with Anne Baxter, Sid Caesar, Robert Ryan, Jan Murray, Ben Blue, Bill Dana and Gailly Cambridge. At the State.

Another comedy — At the Texas. "They're The Bunch," tale of the Volkswagen carrel using market monopolies and beautiful girls to swing big business deals. With Curt Jurgens, Dallah Lavi and Elin Anderson.

"The beat goes on" — Sonny and Cher return in their first film "Good Times" at the Austin, paired with Virginia McKenna and Bill Travers in "Born Free."

Battle of consciences — King Henry VIII and Sir Thomas More confining plating ideas and ideals in "A Man for All Seasons," impressive historical drama at the Varsity starting July 1st.

Outdoor offerings — Chief Driscoll, "The Blue Max" with James Mason, George Peppard, Debralee Byrd, George Segal and Charles Hallahan. "Time" with "Invitation to a Beheading" starring Yul Brynner, the Hondo South Austin Drive-in. "The Venetian Affair," Robert Vaughn, Elin Anderson plus "The Plaisance," Don Murray, Guy Stockwell.

Buzz: documentary "Ward, Wicked World" plus "Bumble" with Yvonne Lili, Elin Anderson.

Enthusiasm — Michael Harrison's Kings IV still driving down highway from Baylor U. to play away at the Chart Room, new East Avenue supper club.

Paul New and the Crew, versatile singing, musical and comedy quintet, return to the Club Saville at the Crest Inn just four short months after their January stand. It's their fourth visit to Austin, and they'll be here four weeks.

Summer routine — This time for sax, regulars Herb Fields and his orchestra return to their berth at the Commodore Perry's Deck Club for the summer.

Background music — Never. Geneva Rawlins steps out of the West Hours stop in the evenings to claim the piano at Roy's new Waterloo Club on the Drag.

Big-time sound — Lovely Nancy Payne, new on the international club scene, captures Club Caravan crowds at the Villa Capri supper club.

Everybody's favorite — Austin's own Ernie Mae Miller, with no mean follow-up from outdoors, plays nightly at the Tiki Room piano at South Island.

Triple treat — The New Orleans Club schedule includes rock bands the Why Naughts on Friday and Boney and the Farrelis Saturday but mixes in more bluesy rhythm Sunday with the Sensational Wildies.

Underground films — Experimental films brought in by the Gulf Coast Cooperative showing nightly at the Match Box, 2511 San Antonio. Admission $1 this week. Free popcorn. Showing time 8:30 p.m.

Folsky trio — Richard Dean, "The 11th Door's" wedding child, "Bill Hill, Moss," the vulgar teddy bear? P. J. Johnson, husband
