COMIC DUO—James Bailey, playing a rough-beaten racketeer with big-time connections, looks on with exasperation as Mary Winick, his dumb-bunny girlfriend, makes a bad play at cards in this scene from the University of Texas production of "Born Yesterday."

The classic Garson Kanin comedy will open Monday at 8 p.m. in the UT Drama Building's Theater Room for a five-night run. It's the last of two attractions on the University's summer drama bill.

Free Folksingers Open Park Musical Fete

A varied assortment of folk performers will be assembled at Ziller Hillside Theater Monday at 8 p.m. to open the fourth annual KXFI-FM Summer Music Festival.

Mayor Harry Alkin will be on hand to get this year's festival off to a good start, and four folksingers will follow to supply the opening night's entertainment.

FOLK SINGER SANDY RHODES AT FESTIVAL. KXFI-FM Summer Music Festival starts Monday.

As many as one million people may take place in a single year, but most of them are in the form of a folk festival.
