COUNTRY MUSIC: Buffy, Kershaw, Van Zandt and Mack Here

By TOWNSEND MILLER
Special Writer

Tanya Tucker came to our town last night and that should be excitement enough for a while! Matter of fact, the Austin country music scene this week seems to be taking shape, with each night at 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. and the big-name newsmen was supposed to have been Denver Bumgarner tonight at the Latin Quarter. Just as deadline is crawling, Tanya Van Zandt will be at the Pub Tuesday through Saturday, and Doug Sabin is slated the same dates at Castle Creek.

Country's "Queen" Mack is expected to appear at the Latin Quarter on Friday night. She is expected to perform at the Latin Quarter on Friday night. She is expected to perform at the Latin Quarter on Friday night.

With him, playing for the duration, will be a return to Austin, Tommy Hill, with his new band, aptly called 808 Country. It'll be good to have Tommy and his five vocals back, and I understand he's returning to Austin to live again.

with the boys. To me, Wayne is in a class by himself, right at the top.

His new "This Time" LP is sort of a masterpiece. Four of the 10 songs were written by Austin's Willie Nelson including "It's Not Support" (See Country, Page 8)
