Contests

Down by the sea in Long Beach the California International Sea Festival runs today through Sunday and Aug. 11 through 14.

Events in and out of the water are scheduled for sand and sea lovers. The Junior Olympic Swim Meet will take place daily from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. at Belmont Pool. (AAU membership is required for the event co-sponsored by Long Beach Convention and News Bureau and the Lakewood Aquatic Club.)

Today there will be a fishing rodeo from 6:30 a.m. to noon at Belmont Pier and is open to any boy or girl 16 or under.

Saturday and Sunday will be the Division II Hobie Cat 16 Championships when boats will launch into the Long Beach breakwater both days at 11 a.m.

Ancient Mariner Regatta will be held Sunday noon to 5 p.m. inside the Long Beach breakwater with approximately 100 vintage schooners, some 100 feet long and 60 years old participating.

Tuesday and Wednesday the International Sabot Regatta will be held at Leeway Sailing Club on Alamitos Bay with races beginning both days at 11:20 a.m.

Aug. 14 the Grand National Catalina Ski Race will start
