NEW FACE—On the scene currently at the 11th Door is Fort Worth-born Thomas Van Zandt, 23-year-old folk singer based at the Club Jester in Houston. Running the gamut from lyrical to humorous in his repertoire, Van Zandt is an adept on the five string banjo as on the six string guitar. Most of his songs are his own, and this summer the lanky folk singer will pack them up again for a visit to the Austin Folk Festival. Appearing this week with Van Zandt on the 11th Door stage is folkrock duo Mike and Mary, local vocalists in the Beatles-Mamas and Papas vein.
