

Townes Van Zandt
No Conway Twitty

bluesy things from the middle of the night. But the world's got enough blues that nobody needs to hear.

"But I've got some songs that if people really listened to and understood ... Well, I have more than enough for another album."

If history is any guide, those new songs will be tiny windows into people's souls, vignettes of triumph and tragedy. "You know, 50% of the fan mail I get is from mental hospitals. 'God-bless-you-You-saved-my-life-with-your-music.' Isn't that something?"

Wednesday night's audience, when Van Zandt performs at 12th & Porter, is more apt to be insanely artistic than certifiably insane, for Van Zandt will surely draw the entire expatriot Texas tunesmith community to his show.

Viacom Assists Child Keyppers International

Viacom Cablevision of Nashville and Child Keyppers International will sponsor Child Safety Days at Rivergate Mall Friday, Saturday and Sunday to provide safety tips to children and their parents.

Viacom Channel 36 will also air special programming this week in recognition of National Child Safety Day, April 25.

Volunteers will fingerprint children, take photos and dental imprints Friday and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. and on Sunday from noon to 5 p.m. at Rivergate Mall. There is no charge for these services.

Jo Ann Currier, president and founder of Child Keyppers International, will be in Nashville Monday to promote this event and also to discuss her book, "Safety Keys for Safety Wise Kids."

Viacom's special programming this week (on Viacom Channel

36) includes: Monday, 5:30 p.m., Child Keyppers Faces and Places; Tuesday, 7 p.m., Les Jameson Live; Wednesday, Keep Our Kids Safe, a live call-in show; Thursday, 7 p.m., Child Safety Program; Friday, 4:30 p.m., Child Safety Puppet Show, Adult/Child Safety, Keep Our Kids Safe.
