Webb gets wilder in '92

Add Webb Wilder to the lengthening list of Nashville pop acts breaking through to the big time.

The self-proclaimed "Idol of Idle Youth" has one of the hottest singles on radio today with Tough It Out. The record has blasted into the top-20 on the Radio & Records national album-rock chart.

The single comes from Webb's Doo Dad album.

Wilder wildness for '92 will also include his eagerly-anticipated film Horror Hayride, set for home-video release in April.

That will coincide with his next hometown show, set for April 3 at 328 Performance Hall. Mark your calendars now.

● It's a Leap Year Day Bash! Propose to your man while Warm Dark Pocket creates the mysterious mood at 328 Performance Hall Saturday in a concert beginning at 8 p.m. Opening will be Geared & Primed, Buzzkill and Lopybogyi, so the Warmsters probably won't go on until around midnight. Tickets are $6.

● Song poet Townes Van Zandt and his wife Janeen are the proud parents of Katie Belle Van Zandt, born on Valentine's Day in Music City.

● The Leon Russell comeback album is due for release by Virgin Records in April. Bruce Hornsby co-produced with Nashvillian Russell, who hasn't issued an album in 10 years.

● Music City's rap/metal fusion sensation the Hard Corps has landed the opening-act slot on the national tour by the Grammy-nominated, New Jack City rap star Ice-T. The package is booked for March 5 at 328 Performance Hall. ■
